

Landcare in South West Sydney

Landcare is a grass-roots volunteer movement made up of people who manage environmental issues in their local community. Landcare groups generally meet once a month, and are a great way to meet neighbours and others in your local community interested in similar activities. For general Landcare enquiries contact the Regional Landcare Facilitator on 02 47253041.

Barragal Landcare

Work on Navigation Creek, Barragal Hills and Barragal Lagoon at Elizabeth Macarthur Agricultural Institute (EMAI), Menangle. Contact: Roger Giles on rogergiles@bigpond.com or phone 0447 715 615.

Cataract Park Scout Group

This group undertakes Landcare activities at the Scouts Australia site at Cataract Park. Works are generally by specific arrangement and commonly linked with local events. Contact Garry Ward on 02 4631 2441.

Cedar Creek Landcare

Based in Thirlmere, this group includes a range of landholders on small farms working to restore Cedar Creek. Contact: Wendi Hare 02 4683 1189.

Glenfiddich Rise Landcare Group Glenfiddich Rise

Regenerating the bushland in the community title area of the Glenfiddich Rise estate near Orangeville. Contact: John House on 0421 054 044

Hilton Park Preservation Group

Contact Christine Anderson on christinesd@iinet.net.au or phone 02 4683 0845.

Kooris on the Move Picton

Regenerating a riparian area on the banks of Stonequarry Creek in Picton and developing a bush tucker garden. Contact: Ross Evans on 4677 8224

Razorback Environmental Protection Society

The group is working towards preserving and enhancing the rural and natural features of the Razorback environment across private property in the Razorback range near Picton. Contact: Julie Sheppard on linju1@virginbroadband.com.au or (02) 4636 6301

Redbank Landcare Group Picton

Working on riparian bushland in Maidstone Street and behind the Leisure Centre in Picton, along Redbank Creek. Contact: Peter Field on 0409 247 738

Stonequarry Creek Landcare Picton

The group is committed to the improving the function, look and health of Stonequarry Creek especially along the stretch of creek that includes the historical weir swimming hole and Picton Viaduct Bridge. Contact: Paul Lilyman on 4677 1039 or 0411 244 308

Theresa Park Landcare

Regenerating the bushland in the community title area of the Theresa Green estate near Cobbitty. Contact: Chris Nicholson on 0419 149 086.

Valley View Estate Landcare

Regenerating the bushland in the Valley View Estate near Picton. Contact: Wollondilly Shire Council 02 4677 1100 or council@wollondilly.nsw.gov.au

Wollondilly Community Nursery

Wollondilly Community Nursery is a community based volunteer nursery that grows local native plant species for distribution mainly to community groups. located on Wonga Rd, Picton. Generally open on Tuesday. Contact: Wollondilly Shire Council 02 4677 1100 or council@wollondilly.nsw.gov.au

Local Council Bushcare Groups

Bushcare groups typically work on public land that is managed by local Council. To find out more about Bushcare groups in the region contact your local Council's bushcare officer:

- Alexandra Stengl, Wollondilly Council, Ph: 4677 1177, Email: alexandra.stengl@wollondilly.nsw.gov.au
- Rob Corby, Camden Council Ph: 6465 5048 Email robert.corby@camden.nsw.gov.au